Kanawha-Charleston Health Department Team Administering Free Tetanus Shots To Flood Victims Wednesday

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA – A team from the Kanawha-Charleston Health Department will be at Point Lick Gospel Tabernacle, 187 Point Lick Dr., Charleston, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. tomorrow, Wednesday, August 17, offering free Tetanus vaccinations to people working in the flash flood zone in Eastern Kanawha County.

We have a limited supply of vaccines and will administer shots on a first-come, first-served basis. Another shipment of the vaccine is expected to arrive later this week.
